

Long Term Disability Insurance
can replace part of your income
if a disability keeps you out of work for a long period of time.

International Partners

Your employer has automatically enrolled you in this important coverage. If you opt out during this enrollment period, you'll have to answer medical questions to get coverage later. See your plan administrator to learn more.

How does it work?

This coverage can pay a monthly benefit if you have a covered illness or injury and you can't work for a few months — or even longer.

You're generally considered disabled if you're unable to do important parts of your job — and your income suffers as a result.

Why is this coverage so valuable?

You can use the money however you choose. It can help you pay for your rent or mortgage, groceries, out-of-pocket medical expenses and more.

What's covered?

This insurance may cover a variety of conditions and injuries. Here are Unum's top reasons for long term disability claims:¹

- Cancer
- Back disorders
- Injuries
- Cardiovascular
- Joint disorders

This plan does not cover pre-existing conditions. See the disclosure section to learn more.

What else is included?

Survivor benefit

If you die while you've been disabled and receiving benefits for at least 180 days, your family could get a benefit equal to 3 months of your gross disability payment.

Waiver of premium

If you're disabled and receiving benefit payments, Unum waives your cost until you return to work.

Long Term Disability Insurance

How much coverage can I get?

You*

You are eligible for coverage if you are an active employee in the United States working a minimum of 30 hours per week.

Coverage amounts

Cover 60% of your monthly income, up to a maximum payment of $30,000.

The monthly benefit may be reduced or offset by other sources of income.

*See the Legal Disclosures for more information.

- ! Coverage is guaranteed as long as a certain number of employees purchase coverage. If you don't sign up now but decide to apply later, you may have to answer medical questions.

Elimination period (EP)

Your elimination period is 90 days. This is the number of days that must pass after a covered injury or illness before you can begin to receive benefits.

Benefit duration (BD)

This is the maximum length of time you can receive benefits while you're disabled. You can receive benefits up to the Social Security (SS) normal retirement age.

Long Term Disability Insurance

Exclusions and limitations

Active employee

You are considered in active employment, if on the day you apply for coverage, you are being paid regularly by Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP for the required minimum hours each week and you are performing the material and substantial duties of your regular occupation.

Coverage may be extended to international Partners with an approved Foreign Risk Exception.

Delayed effective date of coverage

Insurance coverage will be delayed if you are not an active employee because of an injury, sickness, temporary layoff, or leave of absence on the date that insurance would otherwise become effective.

Benefit duration (BD)

The duration of your benefit payments is based on your age when your disability occurs. Your Long Term Disability benefits are payable while you continue to meet the definition of disability. Please refer to your plan document for the duration of benefits under this policy.

Definition of disability

You are considered totally disabled when, as a result of sickness or injury, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the substantial and material acts necessary to pursue your usual occupation in the usual and customary way.

You are partially disabled when you are not totally disabled and that while actually working in an occupation, as a result of sickness or injury you are unable to engage with reasonable continuity in that or in any other occupation in which you could reasonably be expected to perform satisfactorily in light of your age, education, training, experience, station in life, and physical and mental capacity.

You must be under the regular care of a physician in order to be considered disabled.

The loss of a professional or occupational license or certification does not, in itself, constitute disability.

“Substantial and material acts” means the important tasks, functions and operations that are generally required by employers from those engaged in your usual occupation and that cannot be reasonably omitted or modified.

The loss of a professional or occupational license or certification does not, in itself, constitute disability.

Termination of coverage

Your coverage under the policy ends on the earliest of the following:

- The date the policy or plan is cancelled
- The date you no longer are in an eligible group
- The date your eligible group is no longer covered
- The last day of the period for which you made any required contributions
- The last day you are in active employment except as provided under the covered layoff or leave of absence provision.

Unum will provide coverage for a payable claim that occurs while you are covered under the policy or plan.

Social Security advocacy services are provided by GENEX Services, Inc. or The Advocate Group, LLC. Referral to one of our advocacy partners is determined by Unum.

• This information is not intended to be a complete description of the insurance coverage available. The policy or its provisions may vary or be unavailable in some states. The policy has exclusions and limitations which may affect any benefits payable. - Pre-existing conditions: For benefit amounts up to & including $15,000

You have an excluded pre-existing condition if:

- You received medical treatment, care, or services for a diagnosed condition, or took prescribed medication for that diagnosed condition, in the 3 months immediately prior to your effective date of coverage; and
- The disability caused or substantially contributed to by the condition begins in the first 12 months after your effective date of coverage.

- Pre-existing conditions: For benefit amounts in excess of $15,000

You have an excluded pre-existing condition if:

- You received medical treatment, care, or services for a diagnosed condition, or took prescribed drugs or prescribed medicines for that condition, in the 12 months just prior to your effective date of coverage; and
- The disability begins in the first 24 months after your effective date of coverage unless you have been treatment free for 12 consecutive months after your effective date of coverage.

Deductible sources of income

Your disability benefit may be reduced by deductible sources of income and any earnings you have while disabled. Deductible sources of income may include such items as disability income or other amounts you receive or are entitled to receive under workers' compensation or similar occupational benefit laws; state compulsory benefit laws; automobile liability and no fault insurance; legal judgments and settlements; certain retirement plans; other group or association disability programs or insurance; and amounts you or your family receive or are entitled to receive from Social Security or similar governmental programs.

Here's an example of how the benefit may be reduced by deductible sources of income:

Monthly pre-disability earnings:	$3,000
Long term disability benefit percentage:	x 60%
Unreduced maximum benefit:	$1,800
Less Social Security disability benefit per month:	-$900
Less state disability income benefit per month:	-$300
Monthly long term disability benefit:	$600

Exclusions and limitations

Your plan does not cover any disabilities caused by or resulting from:

- Intentionally self-inflicted injuries;
- Active participation in a riot;
- War, declared or undeclared or any act of war;
- Commission of a felony for which you have been convicted;
- Pre-existing conditions (See the disclosure section to learn more).
